In Re: 07-2064
07-2081

Dear Mr. Tutankhatum:

In response to the documents that you recently sent to the Clerk of the Appellate Court, it is unclear to which appeal your documents relate, and what, if any, relief you are seeking from the Court.

In regard to your appeal from Circuit case number 06L3700, which was docketed as appeal 07-2081, the Appellate Court dismissed your appeal on February 22, 2008 for want of prosecution because you failed to file the record on appeal as required by Supreme Court Rule 326. Under the Supreme Court Rules, you have 21 days from that date, which would be to and including March 14, 2008, to ask the Appellate Court to reconsider this dismissal by filing a proper motion to reconsider, or a Petition for Rehearing. After that 21 day period, the Appellate Court will cease to have jurisdiction over your case, and will not be able to consider any matter relating to that appeal.

In regard to your appeal from Circuit Court case number 07M1152463, which has been assigned appeal number 07-2064, that case remains pending before the Appellate Court. However, you have not yet filed your appellant's brief as required by Supreme Court Rule 341. The brief was due to be filed on or before January 25, 2008. If you do not file a motion for extension of time to file your brief, or submit your brief with a motion to file it instant (meaning that you are submitting the brief along with a motion asking for permission to file the brief because it is late), the Court at some point will dismiss this appeal, too, for want of prosecution.
